The facility has 10 rooms which can easily accommodate 10 couples or 20 singles. The facility is currently available at a friendly rate of between depending on the room Configurations. Kirimara Woodlands is ideal for making memories on special events such as honeymoons, weddings or birthday parties, and also suits retreats, seminars, family gatherings, or team-building events. The grounds can host up to 500 guests.

There was once a clubhouse from the 1940s where the facility stands, and adjacent to it was a manager's quarters complete with a bathroom equipped with a bathtub and flushing toilet. Such luxury from before the 1940s! Other activities that happened around included sheep rearing, horse rearing, and snake rearing to collect venom.

The current owner initially considered renovating the club house and converting it into a home but the cost of modernizing it was too exorbitant. Abandoning the initial idea, the owner elected to demolish the structure and build again from scratch, and so was Kirimara Woodlands born.
